EASY TO CAUSE BREAK

Sugar Issues Show Up Strong By Reason of Advances in Price of That Commodity.

New York, March 4.-Stocks were quiet myestors have overbought it. Conditions are such that very little good news should result in improvement on Monday. While it would take some decisively bad news to cause a break.

Banks report brokers' loans in good condition, and brokers say there are practically no weak accounts for customers.

Banks report brokers' loans in good condition, and brokers say there are practically no weak accounts for customers.

During the week the market has stood up under news that would have caused disaster if there had been any technical weakness in the list. The only weak feature is possibility of early liquidation of the 2,000,000 shares of American urities accumulated by the British gov-co stocks were active and adanced sharply as part of a campaign an-nounced by insiders, the object of which nounced by insiders, the object of which is to liquidate on a rising market because profits in the business are being reduced by the high prices of labor and materials. Rallroad earnings are not only showing great percentages of improvement over those of last year but are actually making new high records for volume.

The Corn Products Company is said to be making 256 acticles out of corn Some be making 256 articles out of corn. Some of them are useful in the war and are being sold at good prices.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, March 4.—There were price recessions in the wheat market of % to $\(\) count today. These losses were caused by some of the smaller longs at Chicago evening up their positions over Sanday coupled with the lack of buying power. The principal reason, however, for the weakness displayed was not only a general absence of an export trade, but the report that interests at the scaboard were offering to sell wheat today at the bid price of Fridar.

It was one of these markets where the big people in the trade were on-lookers instead of partici-SAVINGS BANK STOCKS

Proceeds of Ball at Engles' Hall to Go Toward Relief Fund.

Colored Concert Troupe of Fisk University to Be Heard Wednesday.

The Fisk Jubilee Singers, of Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., successors to the famous colored singers who in past years toured nearly every city of importance in Europe, will be heard in Washington at the First Congregational Church, Wednesday evening, March 8, under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society.

The program will contain many of the old Southern songs and plantation melodies, including such favorites as:

"Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." "Steal Away," "Roll Jordan Holl." "I Want to Be Ready," "Rise and Shine." "Old Kentucky Home," and selections from the poems of Paul Laurence Dunbar, the negro poet.

Fisk University, in the interest of which the concert is given, is one of the leading Southern universities for colored youth.

Go Toward Relief Fund.
